PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interior Design (BFA ID) degree aims to professionally provide students with an inclusive body of knowledge bridging theory and practice essential to the interior design of all types of built environments. The program is strategically organized to prepare students of interior design in embracing the tenets and paradigms that purposely create functional spaces for the enhancement of the quality of life, productivity optimization, and protection of public users in the context of health, welfare, and safety. Students will be able to identify and interpret the design principles, creative processes, and methodical strategies as they immerse themselves in all types of lectures, laboratory, and studio-based courses. The students will discover specific standards and planning guidelines while exploring the various interior typologies that include residential spaces, commercial office spaces, retail spaces, training centers, museums and exhibit spaces, performance theaters and audiovisual presentation facilities, healthcare facilities and elderly homes, hotels and restaurants, libraries and educational environments, and more.
