LEARNING OUTCOMES

BODY TYPES & STYLE IDENTITIES

Students will learn to assess different body shapes and proportions, understand style archetypes, and translate these analyses into client-specific styling strategies.

CLOSET AUDITS & SHOPPING STRATEGIES

Participants will master techniques for evaluating existing wardrobes, identifying gaps or opportunities, and practicing both in-store and online shopping strategies that align with client profiles and sustainability goals.

DIGITAL STYLING TOOLS

The program will cover digital styling platforms, mood-board software, virtual lookbooks, and presentation decks, preparing students to communicate styling proposals confidently in a modern digital context.

COLOR THEORY & PALETTES

The course will teach how hue, chroma, and value interact, enabling students to develop personalized color storyboards and seasonal palettes that align with a client's identity and lifestyle.

CAPSULE WARDROBE BUILDING

Students will design versatile 10–12 piece wardrobe capsules tailored to real-world client profiles — from corporate professionals to creative freelancers — ensuring adaptability across settings and body types.

CLIENT STYLING PROJECT

Students will apply all of their skills to a full client brief: consultation, analysis, fittings, look creation, photo documentation, and a final professional presentation showcasing their styling solution.
