PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

College Portfolio Fashion Prep is a 10-week, on-campus Saturday program tailored for high school students preparing competitive portfolios for college admissions in fashion and art-related fields. This course offers a structured and immersive environment where students can develop both their technical skills and conceptual thinking. Guided by IMM's expert faculty, participants will explore key areas such as fashion design, visual storytelling, sketching, and portfolio presentation. The program not only strengthens creative foundations but also positions students for success in top college applications—reinforcing IMM's commitment to early talent cultivation and future industry leadership.
